COVID-19 PUBLIC HEALTH NOTICE

September 2, 2020 – Swinomish Public Health has confirmed one (1) new case of COVID-19 in the community in the last 24 hours.

Beware of telephone scams involving people impersonating contact tracers for COVID-19.

Legitimate contract tracers will likely ask for your name and birthdate. They will also likely ask where you live and with whom you have visited. Legitimate contract tracers will not ask you for any financial information nor for your social security number. If you are not certain that the contact tracer is legitimate, ask for their name, their agency, and their phone number and tell them that you will call them back.

Please call the Swinomish Medical if you have any questions about contact tracing or possible scams.
